What does it mean to be a Professional member?

With becoming a professional member of FBLA you help, teach, and encourage the rising generation of business leaders. Professional Members give students the chance to work one-on-one with experienced leaders. In addition registration fees for the FBLA-PBL national conference are waived for lifetime members!

How to become a Professional member

It is pretty simple. To become a professional member all you have to do is pay yearly dues of $40, which is divided between our chapter, Washington State FBLA, and the National FBLA Office.
